

Vocabulary Sort: cred

credible	tending to believe too easily; easily convinced; easily fooled incredible	believable ; reliable creditor	not believable ; improbable; unlikely incredulous	to refuse to believe ; to reject as untrue accreditation	a document that proves a person is believable credulous	a set of religious beliefs or principles creed	a person who believes that he will be paid back the money that he loaned credential	granting approval or belief in a school credit	to believe that someone will do something discredit	doubting; unwilling or unable to believe